Plums, dark berries, cherries and medium tannins. Leather and black tea on the palate. Just reaching its peak and in need of a plate of roast beef or a piece of steak.

Two Hands, Shiraz, Barossa Valley, Australia

2006 £350.00

At 16½%, complex, expressive nose of spice box, scorched earth, plum, and blueberry. This is followed by mouth-filling, flavours of blue and black fruits, savoury flavours and an exceptionally long finish. Drink now.

Château Musar, Bekaa Valley, Lebanon

2010 £425.00

This wine is remarkable, with a deep, rich garnet colour with aromas of raisins, cedar, prunes and cinnamon. Savoury and herby with delicate spices and the raisiny, figgy aromas follow through to the palate. This is an elegant vintage with fresh acidity and a long, dry finish.
