A complex nose rich in matured red fruits, blueberries, oak and leather.

1999 £144.00

Château Xanadu, Cabernet Sauvignon, Margaret River, Australia

A Cabernet with integrated notes of cedar and incense and a coffee warmth to the black fruit character, which has been aged in French oak.

1991 £150.00

Chateau Larose-Trintaudon, Cru Bourgeois, Haut Medoc, France

A very well balanced and well rounded wine on the palate, that consists of cabernet sauvignon and merlot. With notes of cassis, cherries and earth with firm tannins.

1984 £160.00

Château Greysac, Cru Bourgeois, Medoc, France

An attractive bouquet lightly roasted wood spice, and nicely concentrated black current fruit.

1975 £180.00

Chateau Moulin Riche, St Julien, Bordeaux, France

The wine is very aromatic with a nose of ripe black cherries and violets. The palate is medium-bodied with ripe tannins and opulent fruit, which continues through to the finish. The use of both old and new oak adds a spicy complexity to the palate. The finish is long and smooth.

2010 £250.00

Double Magnums – containing four bottles

Two Hands Bella's Garden, Shiraz, Barossa Vale, Australia

Pure Barossa mocha, blackberry and fruitcake, blended with a generous serving of toasty oak; thick and unctuous with ample levels of sweet fruit.

2007 £135.00

Château Gaby, Canon-Fronsac, France

Full of dark fruits and oak, this is a medium bodied wine drinking now or over the next five years. Exceptional value at the equivalent of £37.50 a bottle.

2000 £150.00

Domaine Bertrand Stehelin, Gigondas, France

Deeply coloured and full bodied with lots of jam, plums, dark fruit with great notes of earth, meat, herbs and an old vine richness. Balanced and mature with a smooth, long finish. Drinking well now.

2007 £195.00

Imperials - containing eight bottles

Château Gaby, Canon-Fronsac, France

Plums, dark berries, cherries and medium tannins. Leather and black tea on the palate. Just reaching its peak and in need of a plate of roast beef or a piece of steak.

2003 £275.00

Two Hands, Shiraz, Barossa Valley, Australia

At 16½%, complex, expressive nose of spice box, scorched earth, plum, and blueberry. This is followed by mouth-filling, flavours of blue and black fruits, savoury flavours and an exceptionally long finish. Drink now.

2006 £350.00

Château Musar, Bekaa Valley, Lebanon

This wine is remarkable, with a deep, rich garnet colour with aromas of raisins, cedar, prunes and cinnamon. Savoury and herby with delicate spices and the raisiny, figgy aromas follow through to the palate. This is an elegant vintage with fresh acidity and a long, dry finish.

2010 £425.00
